GLENDALÉ VICE MAYOR BIDS FAREWELL AND THANKS WHILE REVIEWING A DOZEN YEARS OF TELEVISION INTERVIEWS ON GLENDALÉ 11 T.V.

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Vice-Mayor Steve Frate's last edition of his Glendale Today TV show features a trip down memory lane reviewing numerous past episodes he taped during his 12 years in office. Frate officially retires from public life next month after serving the Sahuaro District in Glendale since 2000.

Frate's final TV show on Glendale 11 takes a look back at various episodes including topics such as Glendale's Parks and Recreation, police safety tips, health lessons from the fire department and the city's volunteer program. Frate also reminisces about one of the city's major employers located in his district, Banner Thunderbird Hospital. Since 2000, Frate has videotaped 36 TV shows on the city-owned Glendale 11.

The new show debuts Friday, December 28 at 8 p.m. and can also be seen daily on Glendale 11, the city's television station. In addition, viewers can watch online via the city's video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
